

1. Put the missing sentences A-G in the correct gaps 1-6. Be careful, there is one extra.

- A) He says, 'As far as I know, this method is the safest one'.
- B) Amateur or careless climbers can disturb wildlife and damage the trees by breaking branches or scratching the bark.
- C) There is something that climbers call a 'red line', which is around 50 metres from the ground, and almost every fall from there results in death.
- D) The trees in national parks are very popular because they are under protection.
- E) Step by step, Tim taught him how to use the system of ropes and knots to climb safely.
- F) Recently, their skills and equipment have become more available to amateur climbers.
- G) You won't believe but there's even a company that sells tree beds so that you can sleep in the canopy.

2. Write T (for True) or F (for False).

- a) ☐ Tree climbing has become more popular.
- b) ☐ Even if you are trained well, tree climbing is still dangerous.
- c) ☐ Every year, there are more than 50,000 accidents all around the world.
- d) ☐ The worst part of tree climbing is it damages trees a lot.