

1. Read the text. Match the questions a-h with the correct answers 1-8.

- a) What kinds of part time jobs can teenagers do?
- b) What times can teens work?
- c) How much money do teenagers get paid for an hour?
- d) What about working during the school holidays?
- e) How many hours can 13 and 14 years old work?
- f) What is the minimum age to work?
- g) What do teenagers need to start working?
- h) Are the rules different for older teenagers?

2. Read the text again. Write (T) true or (F) false. Correct the false sentences.

- a) The regulations explained above include teenagers who are between 12 and 16.
- b) Sunday is the day which teenagers work the least hours.
- c) 16-year-olds are legally entitled to earn money according to National Minimum Wage.
- d) During the school year, children can work for 25 hours a week.
- e) Newspaper delivery is most teens' preference.

