

1. Read the job advertisements. Match each one with two of the sentences (a-h) below.

- a) Only people who can swim very well are right for this job.
- b) This job doesn't require any previous experience.
- c) This job is not in England, but it's in the UK.
- d) This job means working only in the morning.
- e) This job is outdoors by the sea.
- f) You need to write a letter to apply for this job.
- g) Speaking Arabic will give applicants an advantage.
- h) This is a good job for people who do sports.

2. Read the job advertisements again. Read some applicants' profiles. Match them to the right jobs. There is one extra.

a) Sally: 'I'm 19 years old with 7 years of work experience in Olympic pools. I have been in the High School swimming team for 4 years. I have also passed my qualification test and I have a first aid certificate.'

b) Mark: 'I'm multilingual. I can speak three languages; German, French and English. I have worked as a waiter in restaurants before. I love doing sports, and I am very good at organising events.'

c) Robin: 'I think working a half-day will be useful for me. I can do some other jobs for the rest of the day. I haven't worked as a cleaner before, but I guess it wouldn't be hard.'

d) Yousef: 'I have worked in the entertainment business before. I have organised many events, such as Salsa nights and karaoke competitions. I'm very good at dealing with the public. Plus, I speak two more languages fluently; Arabic and Farsi.'

e) Ahmad: 'I have worked in Harrods, a famous shop in London, as a shop assistant. So, my communication skills have sharpened over the years. I speak English quite fluently, and I'm a native speaker of Arabic.'
