

1) An e-reader

- a) is a digital text.
- b) is a tool that helps the user read an e-book.
- c) is a text based publication.
- d) is a small, electronic file.

2) According to the text, Angela Ruiz Robles

- a) was tired of carrying text books to school every day.
- b) wanted to develop a system that would allow students carry books with less difficulty.
- c) got a patent for her invention.
- d) doesn't have any proof that she invented an automated reader.

3) It is stated in the text that Michael Hart

- a) invented the ARPANET with his brother's best friend.
- b) had a boring time working on his invention.
- c) was studying at university at the time he was given the chance to work in a research lab.
- d) earned $100.000.000 from his invention.

4) What was the world's first e-book?

- a) It was the copy of a text that the writer was given.
- b) A school textbook.
- c) A text about finance.
- d) A demonstration of an online programme.

5) According to the text,

- a) Story Space was the first hypertext fiction book.
- b) ARPANET was invented by Michael Hart.
- c) a publishing company created the world's first online financial exchange system.
- d) BiblioBytes started to sell online e-books in the early 1990s.

6) According to the text,

- a) people often prefer to buy e-books as presents.
- b) more e-books are sold in Christmas.
- c) paper books are still popular as presents.
- d) e-books have caused a 40% decline in the market known as 'gift purchase'.