

1. Are the following statements true or false? Correct the false ones.

- |                                                                                |      |       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------|
| a) Coca-Cola was invented by a doctor.                                         | True | False |
| b) At first, Coca-Cola was a kind of medicine.                                 | True | False |
| c) Nobody wanted to buy it at first, because its taste was disgusting.         | True | False |
| d) The businessman who bought the recipe didn't make any changes to it.        | True | False |
| e) The British soldiers made Coca-Cola famous during the Second World War.     | True | False |
| f) Coca-Cola is made up of only a few ingredients.                             | True | False |
| g) The secret ingredient is known by all the workers in the Coca-Cola company. | True | False |

