

- 1. The main aim of the text is to
- a. give information about old flags.
 - b. underline the importance of designing a flag.
 - c. give information about the history and usage of flags.
 - d. give information about flags that are used on special occasions.

- 2. Flags were important for knights because
- a. they showed where they were going.
 - b. they helped show who the enemy was.
 - c. they were signs of their kings and queens.
 - d. their armour was exactly the same as other soldiers.

- 3. Flag designers
- a. should include as many words as possible on a flag.
 - b. should be a talented drawer.
 - c. can now use computers to design a particular flag.
 - d. should convey their message only through certain colours.

- 4. According to the text, many flags
- a. have patterns that symbolizes mourning.
 - b. have similar patterns like stars and stripes.
 - c. give a political message.
 - d. have the colours red and white.

- 5. Which of the following is NOT true according to the text?
- a. The United Nations' flag represents a message about five continents.
 - b. A red flag represents an unsafe situation.
 - c. Carrying a white flag means that you intend to surrender.
 - d. The colours of a flag may contain particular messages.

- 6. According to the text,
- a. national flags have been used since the beginning of mankind.
 - b. flags that contain the colour red always represent a dangerous situation.
 - c. a lot of countries have had flags for over 4,000 years.
 - d. flags can be used as decorative objects.