

1. According to the text, the main reason why high school football players suffer from concussions more than college players is because
 - a. college players often report injuries.
 - b. high school players don't prefer to stop playing when they are injured.
 - c. high school players never report injuries.
 - d. they are playing under more difficult conditions.
2. Berto Garcia first came up with the idea of his invention
 - a. when he figured out that some animals have stabilizer muscles.
 - b. after he got injured and learned that he wouldn't be able to play again.
 - c. when he started high school.
 - d. when he realized that certain animals hit their heads without feeling pain.
3. Why did Berto Garcia choose to work on animals such as rams?
 - a. Because, thanks to stabilizer muscles, they experience less damage when they hit their head.
 - b. Because they have as many concussions as humans do.
 - c. Because they experience more damage compared to humans.
 - d. Because they experience as much pain as humans do.
4. According to the text,
 - a. Garcia's science teacher was not surprised at Garcia's success.
 - b. it was an unexpected success as Garcia was only a high school student.
 - c. Garcia carefully planned the whole path he would take before he started the project.
 - d. Garcia's science teacher came up with the idea of the helmet Garcia developed.
5. Which of these is not true according to the text?
 - a. Garcia learned how to programme the microcontroller on his own.
 - b. Stabilizer muscles aren't found in human beings.
 - c. There is no safety test that can be applied to test football helmets.
 - d. Garcia has received help from a family member to test his invention.
6. Which one is true about Garcia's invention?
 - a. Garcia's invention was originally meant to be used in the military.
 - b. Garcia's invention was developed by his father.
 - c. Garcia first started working on his invention in 2013.
 - d. Thanks to his invention, Garcia has got an opportunity that could be useful for further research.