

1. Read the text. Choose the correct answer.

- a) The problem with mobile phones in schools seems to be that
- A) parents call their children during class.
 - B) some students use them for the wrong purposes.
 - C) teachers are distracted from their lesson plans.
- b) While some schools ban the use of mobile phones for students, Leland Dishman thinks that
- A) mobile phones are the most frequently stolen objects in schools.
 - B) students misuse them by texting the answers of tests to their friends.
 - C) students are responsible enough to use their phones appropriately.
- c) William Scharffe's opinion is that
- A) mobile phones should be allowed in class.
 - B) schools are too strict about mobile phones.
 - C) students should follow school rules when using mobile phones.
- d) The author emphasises responsible use of cell phones in order to
- A) encourage students to use their mobile phones appropriately.
 - B) justify some schools' decision to ban them.
 - C) keep parents from insisting that their kids carry mobile phones.

2. Read the text again. Find an example of a fact and an example of an opinion.

- a) fact:
- b) opinion:

Remember!

- A fact is statement that is true and can be proven.
- An opinion is something what the writer thinks, believes or feels.