

1. Read the text. Answer the questions.

- a) What does the word 'humidity' mean?
.....
- b) What is the range of temperature in a tropical rainforest?
.....
- c) Why doesn't it get really hot in the rainforest?
.....
- d) Why does the temperature in a rainforest stay the same year around?
.....
- e) Why is a rainforest day evenly divided between light and darkness?
.....
- f) List 4 characteristics that an area must have to be considered a rainforest:
.....
- g) What does the word 'it' in paragraph two refer to?
.....
- h) What does the word 'they' in the last paragraph refer to?
.....

2. Read the text again and look at the chart below. Based on the information from the text which places might have a rainforest? Justify your answer.

	Temperature at night	Temperature during the day	The amount of rain
Sri Lanka	18	22	963 cm
Myanmar	17	20	370 cm
Sherwood (England)	4	16	110 cm

.....