1. Read the text. Match the sentences a-e with the 1-5. There is one sentence that you do not need.

a) People are good at judging personality from clues.

b) What is music?

c) You can identify someone's personality from their song choices.

d) People talk about music a lot with new friends.

e) When you meet someone for the first time, what's the quickest way of getting to know them?

2. Read the text again. Choose the correct answers.

a) In one of the experiments, Mr. Gosling shows people photos of

- his bedroom.
- other people's bedrooms.

b) Mr. Gosling ask students to

- find new friends on the internet.
- get to know someone on the internet.

c) The students

- talk about music a lot with each other.
- exchange music a lot with each other.

d) Mr. Gosling asks students to

- write a list of songs they like the best.
- write a list of adjectives that describe themselves.