

1. Read the text. Complete the sentences with the information from the text.

- a) The main purpose of the text is
- b) According to the text, fast food companies use things like glue and glycerine on hamburgers that appear in advertisements because
- c) As used in paragraph two, something is edible if it
- d) According to the text, a food stylist is a person who
- e) According to the text, the food stylist might use glue to
- f) The word 'them' in the fifth paragraph refers to
- g) According to the text, it is important for the lettuce and the tomatoes used in the commercials to look

2. Read the text again. Answer the question below.

Imagine that the author decides to change this text so that it talks about a cheeseburger instead of a hamburger. Assume that the cheese goes directly on top of the hamburger patty. If the author wanted to include a paragraph about how the food stylist designs the cheese and places it on the meat patty, where would this new paragraph best fit into the text? Justify your answer.

Between paragraph and because

.....