

1. Read the text. Complete the summary with the phrases from the box. There are two extra.

•analyse information

•21st century

•problem solving

•age of technology

•reflect

•communicate well

•record data

•good at making decisions

We are living in the a) Many call it the b) We need to learn skills such as c) and we need to be able to d) with other people around the world. Employers are looking for people who can e) well, and people who are able to recognise whether information is reliable or not. They also like people who are f) without asking for help.

2. Read the text again. Write (T) true, (F) false or (DS) doesn't say.

- a) Employers want their workers to be imaginative.
- b) Employers want workers to think about possible problems.
- c) Problem solving is not one of the skills that employers appreciate.
- d) Future workers will need to be able to write concisely.
- e) People communicate with each other less in the 21st century.
- f) Employers don't want workers to make decisions without asking them.