

2. Match the underlined words with their definitions.

- a) To form an opinion about someone or something
- b) To cut off someone's arm, leg or finger etc. during an operation
- c) Careful and thorough
- d) To meet someone or face something without planning to
- e) Hard work or effort someone puts into an activity
- f) Attention that someone gets from newspapers or television
- g) Something successful that is achieved after a lot of effort
- h) To use a particular style of speaking or behaving you would not normally use

3. Answer the questions. Give full answers.

- a) How do Paralympians feel when they hear the word 'inspiration'?
.....
- b) Which sentence from the text tells us that Jessica's opinion is supported by other Paralympians?
.....
- c) Which athlete from the text believes that judging someone is not logical?
.....
- d) What word would Kody Puderbaugh prefer to hear?
.....
- e) Some people call the Paralympics 'Special Olympics'. What do you think is the problem with the term 'Special Olympics'?
.....
.....
.....
.....