

2. Write the underlined words in the text under the correct heading in the chart.

| Noun | Verb | Adjective |
|------|------|-----------|
|      |      |           |

3. Read the text and circle T (true), F (false) or DS (doesn't say).

- |  |          |          |           |
|--|----------|----------|-----------|
| a) Glaciers contain $\frac{1}{4}$ of the world's freshwater.     | T | F | DS |
| b) The last ice age was the longest and coldest.                 | T | F | DS |
| c) N  v   and firn are different types of snow.                  | T | F | DS |
| d) Glaciers do not form quickly.                                 | T | F | DS |
| e) Glaciers are blue because of the air in them.                 | T | F | DS |
| f) Many people have died while walking on glaciers.              | T | F | DS |
| g) The glacier at the South Pole is heavier than the North Pole. | T | F | DS |

4. What would happen if all the glaciers melted?

.....

.....

.....