

1. Write what each body language signal may mean. Use short answers.

a) Making uncommon eye contact

b) Avoid facing people

c) Easy distraction

d) Shaking body parts

e) Touching nose

2. Write true (T) or false (F) next to the statements.

a) If people are lying, they tend to shake their hands.

b) If someone is playing with the things around, he might not feel comfortable with the conversation.

c) People directly face towards others if they are unhappy with something.

d) People generally pinch their nose when they feel sad.