

1. Read the text and choose the correct answers.

a) The new exhibition allows people to...

1. experience the world using all of their primary senses.
2. understand how much we rely on our sight.
3. experience the power of senses other than sight.

b) The exhibition is designed...

1. to demonstrate innovations which help people in their everyday lives.
2. for blind people to socialise and meet other blind people.
3. to help sighted people understand what life is like for blind people.

c) When you explore art at the exhibition, you...

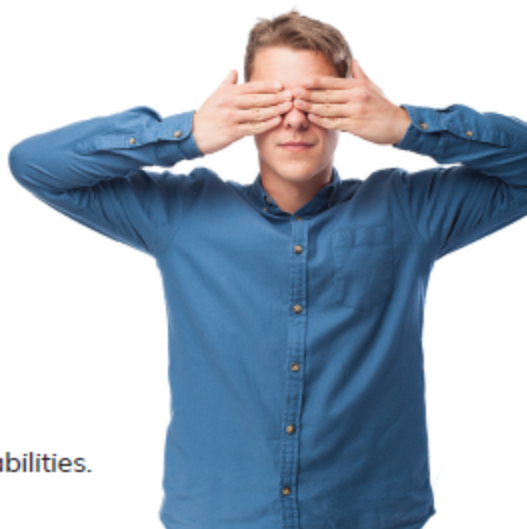

1. can only use your sense of touch.
2. can feel objects and listen to people talking about pictures.
3. can listen to artists talking about their sculptures.

d) At the restaurant, you...

1. can have conversations with blind people.
2. can choose the dishes you want by tasting them first.
3. must book a table before you go.

e) The purpose of the text is to...

1. inform people about a permanent museum display.
2. encourage people to sympathise with people who have disabilities.
3. give a review of an unusual restaurant.

2. Read the text again and write T (True) or F (False) in the blanks. Correct the false statements.

- a) The exhibition in London gives us a chance to understand people who can't see.
- b) You can have dinner at Dark Restaurant.
- c) Blind people serve you the food there.
- d) This exhibition is free and will end in June.
- e) 2 hours will be enough for you to finish your meal.