

1. Match the definitions with the words in bold. Write the words next to definitions.

- a) to try very hard to do something
- b) other side of something / past something
- c) someone who helps, or is friends with, a more powerful and important person
- d) serious disagreement
- e) working secretly in order to get information

2. Mark the sentences as True (T) or False (F).

- a) When superheroes are in need, government officials are always there.
- b) Superheroes go undercover to have some special place for themselves.
- c) Batman is one of the superheroes who likes fighting in a team.
- d) There are many heroines in stories today.

