

1. Fill in each gap with an underlined word.

- a) He liked to dance but felt if someone was watching him. After all, he is not the most person ever.
- b) Let's we're on the Moon.
- c) If you, the school will penalize you with extra homework.
- d) Sally didn't to any of his emails or text messages.
- e) My mother made a complaint to the school principal because some big kids me every day and take my lunch from me.

2. Write T (for true) or F (for false) next to each statement.

- a) Frank is younger than 15.
- b) Teachers don't help Frank, because they like the other boys.
- c) Frank's parents were angry when they found out that he skipped school.
- d) Sally is a shy person.
- e) Sally is having trouble talking with individuals.
- f) Sally thinks she is not interesting while having a one-on-one conversation.
- g) Rebecca's parents don't trust her because of her past mistakes.
- h) There is only one more person among Rebecca's friends who doesn't have social media.
- i) Rebecca started living somewhere away from her friends she mentioned here.