

1. Which one of the sentences is NOT true according to the text?
- a) In the past, people were more optimistic about the future of the world.
  - b) Today, everybody agrees that terrible things will happen in the future.
  - c) One of the most serious problems in the world is high population.
  - d) Countries will fight with each other because there will not be enough water for people to drink.