

1. Write T (for True) or F (for False). If the sentence is false, write the correct information.

a) Texting while driving is not as dangerous as texting while walking.

.....

b) People who text and walk have less injuries than motorcyclists.

.....

c) If you text while you walk, you have a risk of bumping into other people or things.

.....

d) People pay attention where they place their feet if they are texting while walking.

.....

e) The most serious damage that results from texting while walking is head injuries.

.....

2. Match the words with their definitions. There is ONE EXTRA option in the second column.

a) Pedestrian 1. physical harm that is done to something

b) Bump into 2. someone who is walking

c) Damage 3. more than usual or more than others

..... 4. to hit or knock against something