

1. Read the text and answer the questions.

- a) How many languages are discussed in the text?
- b) What was the original name of Esperanto?
- c) Which language was made by a person?
- d) Which language was taught in schools in the 19th century?
- e) Which countries made English more popular around the world?

2. These sentences are false. Change them to make them true.

- a) Nobody speaks Esperanto today.
- b) French was the language of technology and science.
- c) The United States was the world power before World War Two.
- d) English is the most widely-used first language.