

2. Read the first paragraph again and choose the meaning of the idiom "wooden spoon."

- |                             |                                      |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| a) A chart of happiness     | c) The name of a research company    |
| b) Award for finishing last | d) Expressing your positive feelings |

DO MORE OF
WHAT MAKES
YOU happy.

3. Read the text again and circle TRUE or FALSE.

- |   |              |
|---|--------------|
| 1. A new study says Australians are the world's happiest people.            | TRUE / FALSE |
| 2. Interviewers asked the questions to 30,000 people on the telephone.      | TRUE / FALSE |
| 3. Egyptians and Indians were among the top five happiest populations.      | TRUE / FALSE |
| 4. Hungary got the wooden spoon.  | TRUE / FALSE |
| 5. The survey showed that money can buy happiness.                          | TRUE / FALSE |
| 6. Unemployed people were shown to be surprisingly happy.                   | TRUE / FALSE |
| 7. The survey found that the older we become, the happier we are.           | TRUE / FALSE |
| 8. The people in their 50s are the least happy group.                       | TRUE / FALSE |
| 9. Most people feel better when they buy things for themselves.             | TRUE / FALSE |
| 10. Emerson believes that instead of anger, we should search for happiness. | TRUE / FALSE |