| L. Answer the following questions.                         |   |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
|--|---|---|------------|-----------|---------------|------------------|--|
| 1.   | Why do people kill elephants?             |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 2.   | What is ivory used for?                   |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 2.   | . Write True, False or Not Mentioned.     |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 1.   | African elephants are endangered species. |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 2.   | 2. The number of elephants in increasing. |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
|  | Elephants are herbivores.                 |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 4.   | I. Some people still kill the elephants.  |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 3. Choose the correct meaning for each of the words below. |   |   |            |           |               |                  |  |
| 1.   | Endangered                                | a) huge   | b) extinct | c) killed | d) at risk of | extinction       |  |
| 2.   | Importation                               | portation a) sending goods to another country b) buying |            |           |               | oods             |  |
|  |   | c) bringing goods from another country                  |            |           |               | d) selling goods |  |
|  |   |   |            |           |               |                  |  |