

1. Read the text. Write T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

- a) The writer believes that men are better than women. ....
- b) The writer believes that men and women are very different. ....
- c) The writer thinks a person's group identity has a big impact on their lives. ....
- d) According to the text, men and women cannot hurt each other with their power. ....
- e) The writer agrees that freedom for all people is the best kind of equality. ....