

1. Answer the following questions.

1. What kind of jobs could women have before World War II?

2. According to the woman in the text, who has suffered more – older or younger women? Explain.

3. What do many women experience for having to balance work and family life?
