

1. Answer the questions about the text using your own words.

1. Why did your friend realize that you were lying about the event you both were talking about?

2. Which are the main channels through which non-verbal language is expressed?

3. Explain why the tone and inflection of your voice can be a more powerful tool than words for communication.
