

1. Read the text and answer the questions.

a) What examples does the author give to show how our education system ignores creativity?

.....

b) What solutions does the author offer to increase creativity in students?

.....

c) What does the author identify as the main problem with our school system?

.....