

1. Read the text and write T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

- a) The writer believes that the elderly stop caring about their appearance.
- b) The writer blames the fashion industry for the elderly's inability to adjust their clothing to their age.
- c) According to the writer, people should choose their clothes in accordance with their other clothing items.
- d) The writer believes that we should buy a lot of clothing items.
- e) According to the text, looking good is the only purpose of clothes.