

1. Read the text. Write T (True) or F (False) next to each statement.

a) Nowadays, people don't use the phrase 'global warming' much.

b) The Earth's atmosphere has become colder in the past century.

c) People in different areas experience the effects of global warming differently.

d) A one-degree-Celsius change in the average temperature is not important.

e) We haven't seen a lot of the effects of climate change yet.