

1. Five good reasons to start cooking as a family are stated in the text. Read what kids and parents think about them. Which reason are these people referring to? Write the number in the blank.

- a) ...."You want to be safe in the kitchen, but you want to give them the experience to do things" —John
- b) .... "It's creating memories, and those memories will last forever." —Andrea
- c) ...."We laugh and joke while we're cooking." —Michael
- d) ...."If I learn it now, then I'll be better and better when I get older." —Brigitte
- e) .... "I think my kids like to cook because it's a craft, it's very creative, and they like to eat foods they might normally turn their noses up at." —Ruby

2. There are five bold and underlined words in the text. Match them with their definitions.

- a) a family or group of people who live together in a house: .....
- b) the quality of being happy and ready to do something: .....
- c) dirty and/or untidy: .....
- d) careful and thorough: .....
- e) having a natural ability to do something well: .....