

1. Answer the questions according to the text.

- a) Where did Inuit people build the Igloos?
- b) When did they use the Igloos?
- c) What are the main reasons for building Igloos?
- d) What is an Igloo made of?

2. Write true or false next to the sentences.

- a) All the British people who have bought houses since 2002 are very happy with their purchases.
- b) Igloos are functional buildings, but they don't have aesthetical appeal.
- c) Igloos are extremely weak buildings.
- d) The domed shape of an Igloo is a sacred form in some cultures.
- e) There are many different building material choices in the Arctic.
- f) The construction material of an Igloo is environmentally friendly.